

What Makes Each Person Special?

Draw pictures of members of your family and friends. Don't forget to include hair in your pictures. After you complete your pictures, think about what you have in common and what is different from you and your family and friends.

Me

